Torrance Resident Writes, Directs Winning X-15 Film

The documentary motion picture story of the X-15 rocket airplane, which recently won national recognition as the best industrial film in its class, was written and directed by Bill Brose of 3423 W. 227th Place. The awards are made annually by Industrial Photography magazine.

Dresser Added To Scout Fete Committee List

Charles "Chuck" Dresser, affiliated with the Boy Scout movement for 15 years, has been appointed arrangements chairman for the Annual Banquet of the Harbor District, Los Angeles Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The affair will be held at the San Pedro Hacienda Hotel on Wednesday, Nov. 9, according to General Chairman George A. Bradford.

Officials of North American Aviation's Los Angeles Division, which built the rocket research airplane and produced the film, said it has been seen by several million persons in this country and foreign nations during the last 10 months. More than 400 service clubs, schools, military and government groups have had showings in addition to scores of television runs throughout the nation.

OTHER KEY company persons who participated in the production were film editors John Glenn, of 1519 W. 125th St., Los Angeles; Mark Coughlan, of Conoga Park, and Bill Wyper, of Los Angeles. Sound was by Marty Halperin of Los Angeles.

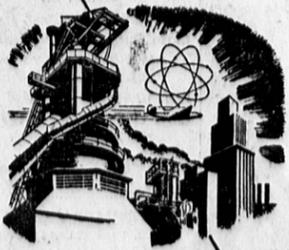

Aerial photography was by John DeLong of Venice.

The 16mm. color-sound movie is the first filmed account of the world's fastest and highest flying airplane which in August set an altitude record of 136,500 feet and a speed record of 2196 miles per hour.

A joint research program of the Air Force, National Aeronautics and Space Administration and U.S. Navy, the X-15 soon will be flying maximum missions with a new 57,000-pound thrust engine.

Dresser was born in Torrance and is an Eagle Scout. He has served as neighborhood commissioner, committee chairman of Explorer Post 115X, and associate advisor of Sea Explorer Ship 213-5. A member of the Order of the Arrow, Dresser is lay advisor to the District Explorer Cabinet and is responsible for Explorer participation on week end cruises and other activities with the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps.
